

6516208213.txt

This is just progress -- capitalism and market forces at work. The NAB didn't like FM radio at one point. It's just the market forces at work. If people like it, it will persevere. If they don't, they (we) will vote with out wallets and cancel the service. Cable TV had the same greeting from the establishment. So let's give the marketplace a chance to call the winner!

Sincerely,

Ken Rossen